CIVIL ACTION NO. 20-CV-4562

ORDER

AND NOW, this 16th day of December, 2020, upon consideration of Plaintiff Johan Perez's Amended Complaint (ECF No. 11) it is ORDERED that:

1. The Amended Complaint is DISMISSED in its entirety for failure to state a claim, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii), for the reasons in the Court's Memorandum as follows:

- a. Perez's official capacity claims against the SCI Chester Defendants and his claims based on grievances are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE; and
- b. Perez's remaining claims are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE to him filing a second amended complaint in accordance with paragraph two (2) of this Order.

2. Perez may file a second amended complaint within sixty (60) days of the date of this Order. Any second amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the second amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the second amended complaint and shall state the basis for Perez's claims against each defendant. The second amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint, Amended Complaint, or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his second amended complaint, Perez should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial Complaint and Amended Complaint as explained in the Court's Memoranda. Upon the filing of a second amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

3. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Perez a blank copy of the Court's form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Perez may use this form to file his amended complaint if he chooses to do so.<sup>1</sup>

4. If Perez does not wish to amend his Complaint and instead intends to stand on his Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within sixty (60) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" when the district court "expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims").

5. If Perez fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Perez intends to stand on his Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.<sup>2</sup> See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).

<sup>2</sup> The six-factor test announced in Poulis v. State Farm Fire & Casualty Co., 747 F.2d 863 (3d Cir. 1984), is inapplicable to dismissal orders based on a plaintiff's intention to stand on his complaint. See Weber, 939 F.3d at 241 & n.11 (treating the "stand on the complaint" doctrine as distinct from dismissals under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) for failure to comply with a court order, which require assessment of the Poulis factors); see also Elansari v. Altria, 799 F. App'x 107, 108 n.1 (3d Cir. 2020) (per curiam). Indeed, an analysis under Poulis is not required when a plaintiff willfully abandons the case or makes adjudication impossible, as would be the case when a plaintiff opts not to amend his complaint, leaving the case without an operative pleading. See Dickens v. Danberg, 700 F. App'x 116, 118 (3d Cir. 2017) (per curiam) ("Where a plaintiff's conduct clearly indicates that he willfully intends to abandon the case, or where the plaintiff's behavior is so contumacious as to make adjudication of the case impossible, a balancing of the Poulis factors is not necessary."); Baker v. Accounts Receivables Mgmt., Inc., 292 F.R.D. 171, 175 (D.N.J. 2013) ("[T]he Court need not engage in an analysis of the six Poulis factors in cases where a party willfully abandons her case or otherwise makes adjudication of the matter impossible." (citing cases)).
